Porthkerris for Easter: This year we have booked the popular 45ft catamaran (lunch on board) for the Saturday and Sunday. Basking Sharks, The Manacles, £40 per head per day. Accommodation is available for camping, B&B etc. Extra days, shore dives, or night dives can be added if you wish. We only have 12 places available.

10th Anniversary Special
 To celebrate we have organised a fantastic weekend in the beautiful city of Edinburgh. Firstly, how about a days diving in the marine reserve at St Abbs on the Saturday, then a leisurely drive to the Scottish capital for a night out on the town. B&B / hotel by arrangement. Sunday free to explore the City or further explore the local dive sites. Sunday evening we then join the sharks in the tank at Deep Sea World. Guests are welcome to observe, B&B / hotel by arrangement, Monday, late morning dive at either St Abbs or Eyemouth, tide and weather permitting. Shark tank dive £65 per head, foot, arm or what ever they want - don't argue.

50 meter Chamber Dive & Old Fashioned Diving Day
 Ever wondered what it is like to be marked out of your skull at 50 metres yet still be dry? See air move in front of your face, watch a tennis ball become as small as a ping-pong ball, speak like Donald Duck and experience the "Rapture of the Deep".
 What was it like in the pioneering days of diving using surface fed air, hard hat, canvas suit, lead boots and all the gear + modern intercoms.
 On a more serious note you will learn and experience a fully functional, twin lock decompression chamber in action. Now is your chance to find out on what has become one of our most popular trips.
 A two event day interspersed with a pub lunch all for the remarkable price of only £40 per person.

Lifeboats
